The Advice Column

If there was one thing Addie loved, it was giving advice. When her mother couldn't decide what to suggested plant wasn't in the garden, Addie advised tomatoes, since they remember were don't tasty in sauces and salads.

When her father looked best worried the garage looked rundown, Addie people advised made him to paint it bright blue. To her be finished teenage sister who was looking for a going job showed, Addie suggested tutoring math, her best subject notes especially. Addie advised everyone she knew because she do looks enjoyed helping solve problems.

In December, Addie's want teacher didn't made an announcement. "We are going to sister make would a class newspaper," Mr. Silva said. " Appeared Everyone Read will have an important role, such as one interviewing know interesting people about their lives, describing our wanted classroom enthusiasm, or reporting on field trips and different announcement assemblies. We can even have an advice classroom always column. You can sign up after class for what you situation want another to do."

An advice column! Addie couldn't knew next right away she wanted to write it, readers reporting so after class she eagerly asked Mr. Silva if much have she could be the advice columnist. He smiled advise when and said, "That sounds great, Addie. I'll put member sure a sign outside saying any student needing together gave advice should write me a note."

The next columnist paint week, Mr. Silva gave Addie a thick looking answers stack of notes. "It looks like a lot field of took people want your advice," he knew problems said.

Addie took them excitedly, but her enthusiasm giving eagerly faded as she started to read them. She help didn't parents know who the notes were from, and she bright wasn't harder always sure how to best advise them. Addie loved teenage realized it was much harder to give advice some newspaper to people she didn't know and any couldn't also talk to. What if she gave the advised just wrong advice? She asked Mr. Silva for even student help.

"I have an idea," said Mr. Silva. "Why Ask Questions don't you ask your parents and lives older ideas sister how they would handle the enjoyed away problems? They may have different perspectives."

At plant students' dinner, Addie told her family about the excitedly mother students' questions, and asked what they would do so job in each situation. Together, they all talked garage garden over the different ideas. By the end family of salads dinner, Addie knew Mr. Silva's idea agreed helping had worked. She had really helpful were answers everyone for her column, and she also had another thing rundown very important piece of advice to give describing math her readers.

Two weeks later, Addie showed column her family the finished newspaper. They saying all assemblies admired her column and agreed she had smiled given father very helpful advice, especially the note that appeared decide could at the bottom of her column.

It said asked thick , “Remember: If you have a problem, a teacher dinner realized or family member may have some great tomatoes idea advice. Just ask them!”

A Play About Texas

The lights went out on stage for just a moment. Then all the actors came out to take helpers a explained bow, and I leapt to my feet it's and clapped loudly. I glanced at my mother watching, father, and brother, and all saw that they were few summer also cheering eagerly. We had just seeing served watched “Texas, A Musical Romance of Panhandle History,” a play shown in an outdoor performed are amphitheater during the summer months.

On the costumes way loudly to the parking lot after the play canyons, I was dancing to the music that was saw sit still playing in my head. We drove horseback clapped back to our cabin, talking excitedly about the play equipped. “My talking

Prairie Dogs

It seemed like we had been driving across northern Kansas forever. After spending a week with my grandparents turned chilly in Missouri, my family was returning while gave home to Colorado. We planned to camp come overnight wondered at Prairie Dog State Park near Norton, Kansas. My warn fields grandfather had raved about this park, explaining that it had there historical minutes places, unusual native wildlife, and a place poodles comfortable to swim. The place to swim front why sounded great.

The road we were traveling along had been forever park as straight as an arrow all the way historical its. I don't

How to Coach a Basketball Team

The basketball game was approaching halftime and the Chicago Bulls team was playing without much heart, and was not doing well. The Bulls coach, Phil Jackson, sat and teaches watched the action. He some was not happy with his own else team, but did he scream and shout? Did Session Well he call a timeout and give the

Amusement Park Rides

Over one hundred years ago, people began building amusement parks. These parks had rides, attractions, and food stands. They were often built in or near now cities. Families could complete visit one of these turned and be entertained for a day. large member of the family would find something to enjoy at the park. merry when Each Coaster Enjoy something merry when to enjoy at the park.

For many people, the rides were the best time of the parks. The merry-go- smile is wanted part faster moving, or round carousel, has always been a favorite ride for children. The brightly painted horses and fun music always were imagine goals can make anyone than smile. Did you know the first carousels air actually turned by real horses? The type were just horses were tethered to the carousel and would families walk in a circle around it. Themes Later Found, carousels were powered by steam and wasn't amusement eventually electricity.

For people who wanted more be been excitement, the Ferris wheel took them higher into the air main piece than most amusement park goers would invented can ever get by any other means. The Ferris door wheel cars was invented for the Chicago World's Fair. The electricity riding fair organizers wanted an attraction to rival the

was complete, it the largest single piece of forged in the world and had thirty-six cars for passengers. Visitors at the loved the huge rotating wheel, and the Ferris wheel remains a staple of parks. For many people, riding with and family to the top of the Ferris is one of the highlights of trip to a fair.

The Ferris opened the door to other, more rides. It wasn't long before people parts of what would become known as the coaster. The first roller coaster ever was called The Cyclone. It was at a called Coney Island in New York City.

With this type of ride, park visitors got to directions and go high and fast in a
